Children and Youth must be the center of all ministries.

Families serve as the primary relationship for building faith.

Congregations support families in the shared mission to nurture and pass on faith.

Culture is transformed by congregations and families working together in faith.

Community is shaped by the faith of families, strengthened by the congregations, and lived out in a larger community.

Creation shows the relationship with God whose power is seen in mercy, and glory seen in majesty.

©2008 Dr. Dick Hardel, Passing on the Faith